

D1075 Level 3 Diploma in Holistic Colour Therapy (Units VR02 and VR74 are prerequisites for this qualification)

Aim: To train candidates to a professionally competent level enabling them to provide holistic colour therapy which meets client needs and to demonstrate a full and accurate understanding of the application of interpersonal skills

Objectives:

to develop knowledge and understanding of the uses and limits of interpersonal skills and their integration with physical therapies

to become competent in the application of holistic colour therapy and develop understanding of the relationship of colour therapy to auras and chakras