

D1102 Level 2 Certificate in The Theory of Body Art (Tattooing)

Aim of the Qualification

- To train candidates in understanding the history, cultural connections and general techniques of body art (tattooing)

Objectives

- To develop candidates' knowledge of anatomy & physiology for body art (Tattooing)
- To provide emergency first aid in the workplace
- Understand how to support hygiene, health, safety, and security in the body art of piercing and tattooing clinic
- Understand how to maintain employment standards for body piercing and tattooing
- Understand how to implement good working relationships with colleagues and clients in the clinic
- Understanding the history and culture of tattooing